Annual RE Conference 2022

Friday 28th January, 9.30-3.00, Engineers' House

“How interesting are you?!”

Developing curiosity about different people's beliefs and identities

A thought provoking and inspiring day of presentations and workshops offering you a wide selection of speakers with many ideas and resources to improve the quality of Religious Education in your school, from EYFS to KS4.

Aims :

- Encourage a curiosity and openness about others through RE/R&W
- Explore issues of equality and justice through RE / R&W

Keynote: Lat Blaylock - Lat is the Editor of RE Today magazine, and a national RE adviser in the UK. He was a classroom teacher of RE for 11 years in a large secondary school in Leicester. He meets about 3000 teachers of RE every year through his training and professional development work. He has published a large number of RE resources, including making nine series of broadcasts with the BBC.

Also— a great range of workshops to support RE & worldviews throughout the Primary and Secondary curriculum

The conference is FREE for South Gloucestershire schools. £105 per delegate at the conference venue, £150 for two from the same school.

(If unable to attend in person: £60 on zoom, or £90 on zoom for two delegates from the same school)
